EARLY ACCLAIM FROM BILLBOARD, VULTURE, STEREOGUM, MTV AND MORE

September 29, 2017 (Burbank, CA) – Echosmith have released their highly anticipated EP, Inside A Dream, out today via Warner Bros. Records. The 7-track set is the long-awaited follow-up to their 2013 Gold-certified debut Talking Dreams, and includes the recently released singles “Dear World,” “Goodbye” and “Future Me,” which have earned acclaim from the likes of Vulture, Stereogum, MTV and more. Billboard praises, “Echosmith is back in full force” while Substream Magazine attests, “Every song is a different take on shimmering indie-pop (some retro, some more futuristic) that’s so catchy, it’s hard not to sing along.” Alongside the EP release, Echosmith has dropped the official video for “Get Into My Car” which follows frontwoman Sydney Sierota as she chauffeurs an array of strangers across town as an Uber driver, ultimately finding unexpected romance along the way. Inside A Dream is the precursor to the band’s full-length sophomore album and North American tour, which are confirmed for Spring 2018.

The EP marks a new and exciting direction for the LA-based Sierota siblings, showcasing a more mature and evolved sound. Led by charismatic frontwoman Sydney Sierota and rounded out by her brothers Noah (bass) and Graham (drums), the tight-knit siblings had to come to grips with the departure of big brother and guitar player Jamie, who chose to leave the band after the last album in order to spend more time with his wife and son. “We had to find ourselves as a trio instead of a quartet,” admits Noah. “At that point, we never had another musician on stage with us,” explains Sydney. “That literally forced us on a journey of having to discover this sound. We still had electric guitars, but they weren’t the center of the music anymore.” Now utilizing vintage synths, keys, and drum machines, the new music is awash in shimmering synths, airy guitars, and heavenly vocals.

Echosmith first emerged onto the scene in 2013 with their debut album Talking Dreams. The (Gold-certified) album produced the triple-platinum hit “Cool Kids,” and platinum-certified “Bright.” The band quickly earned rave reviews from the likes of ELLE, Rolling Stone, Teen Vogue, Billboard, NYLON, and more for their distinctive melody-minded, New Wave-influenced sound. They have performed on ELLEN, The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, The Today Show, Late Night with Seth Meyers, The Late Late Show with James Corden, Conan and others. The Sierotas – Sydney (vocals/keyboard), Noah (vocals/bass), and Graham (drums) – have played to crowds of thousands at festivals and sold-out shows in the U.S. and Europe. The band has even joined Taylor Swift as a special guest on her 1989 Tour in Philadelphia to perform “Cool Kids.”
